DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is responsive to the Amendment filed January 6, 2004. The rejection of claim 4 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bosco et al., U.S. Patent 6,103,409 is overcome. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bertoli U.S. Patent 3,607,423. Claims 2,3 & 5-6 are allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2,3 & 5-6 are allowable over the prior art of record, because the prior art is silent to a fuel cell humidifying system comprising a flow path switching mechanism for switching gas passages leading to the humidifier.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bertoli U.S. Patent 3,607,423.

Art Unit: 1746

Bertioli teaches a fuel cell humidifying system comprising a cleaning mechanism (53). See column 2, lines 70-75 and Figure 4. The instant claim is anticipated in the prior art set forth. The language "for preventing clogging of a water permeable membrane in the humidifier" constitutes intended use of the cleaning mechanism. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In re Casey , 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967); In re Otto , 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963). In the instant case, the cleaning mechanism of Bertioli is considered to be an inherent property of the cleaning mechanism as set forth in the prior art, because Bertioli discloses a filter that filters air prior to charging air to the humidifier. Therefore, the filter is capable of performing the intended use and meets the claim.

Response to Arguments

Applicant asserts that Bosco U.S. Patent 6,103,409 does not provide a cleaning mechanism for preventing clogging in a humidifier. The assertion is correct, and the rejection is overcome.

Art Unit: 1746

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
